

CREDIBILITY, CULPABILITY, AND THE PUBLIC TRUST:

CURRENT ISSUES IN UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE MUSEUM COLLECTIONS

What can university and college museums and galleries do when faced with the risk of closure, threats to their collections, and questions of relevancy to the institutional mission?

Presented by the Association of College and University Museums and Galleries, an AAM affiliate, and hosted by the Mary and Leigh Block Museum, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Keynote Speaker

Neil Harris

The Preston and Sterling Morton Professor
